The Terror (novel) - Wikipedia

"The Way of Glory is a riveting exploration of a long-past era few authors would dare to tackle with such confidence. Cate is a richly developed heroine wrestling within a narrow scope of 12th century morality, seeking her own salvation, but also keenly aware of the societal and cultural evil being done around her.

This is about as remarkable a claim as could be stated, and yet it is tossed out lightly. Christians seem to imagine that "God did it" is as plausible as the natural explanation that stories grow with the retelling. The Christian has the burden of proof, and it's an enormous burden given this enormous claim."
